

Using Precise Language

Directions: rewrite the following sentences to replace vague language with precise language.

Example:

Vague Sentence → I think that there should be law against using too much water.

Precise Sentence → It should be illegal to waste water.

1. I think it may be true that you can make water turn into steam if you make the water hot enough.

2. You and I will be able to see the first stars appear in the night sky at exactly eight thirty at night.

3. Thousands of types of animals that live on the land were destroyed in the great amazing flood of 1675.

4. I think that my new car is an extremely high quality piece of machinery.

5. Tom is a careless person.

6. One universal language for everybody in the world to communicate with each other with would be much easier.
